

Dear _____

This summer, the week of July 13th - 18th, I have an opportunity to go to Youth Explosion Summer Camp in Bradenton, FL.

This Camp is full of God, Christian friends, and lots of fun. I can't wait to experience God on a whole other level and I expect great life change there. I am excited about what God will do in my life and the experiences with great friends that I'll have through camp this summer.

However, I need your help. This year, the total for the entire week of camp is $395 per person. That includes our lodging at the camps on-campus hotel, food for the entire week, and the entire experience of camp as a whole. Anything you can do to help will be greatly appreciated.

I can't wait for camp this year, and I also ask that, along with financial support, you keep me in your prayers as I enter into a week dedicated to deepening my relationship with God.

Thank you and blessings,
